CHAI WU EXCLUSIVE TEA

Da Hong Pao

(Big Red Robe)

Oolong Tea

£25.0

per person

Grown in the Wuyi Mountains, it is a heavily oxidized, dark oolong tea. According to legend, the mother of a Ming dynasty emperor was cured of an illness by a certain tea, and that emperor sent great red robes to clothe the four bushes from which that tea originated. This high grade oolong tea is handmade from tender leaves, withered, tumbled, curled and baked in small batches over charcoal to create an aromatic infusion with distinctive dark cocoa notes, a toasted, fruity flavour and a long smooth aftertaste.

2010 Deep Mountain Old Trees

Raw Pu'er Tea

£30.0

per person

Originating from Bao Tang, Mengsong, Yunnan Province, this tea is warm with a lasting floral honey aroma on an overtone of raisin and jujube. The flavour is caramelised sweetness with pleasant bitterness almost like orange peel jam, with warm, earthy fragrance you would experience when rain hits the ground in a forest. Silky and thick body with dense mouthfeel and cleansing aftertaste.

Jin Jun Mei

(Golden Beautiful Eyebrow)

Black Tea

£65.0

per person

A Lapsang Souchong black tea from Wuyishan City, Fujian Province, China. It is made from two small shoots plucked in early spring from the plant's stem which are subsequently fully oxidised to giving a tea that has a sweet fruity and flowery flavour with a long lasting sweet after-taste. The brew is bright reddish in colour. It is one of the most prestigious of all teas, where only 50 kilograms are made each year.

VAT is charged at the applicable rate

A discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to the final bill. A £1 discretionary cover charge will be applied per person 12 years and over.
